NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 8.—The Times says: It is highly probable that seven of the eleven propositions submitted to the people with a view to the amendment of the State Constitution have been defeated. Those rejected are said to be the amendments aimed against bribery at elections; that extending the Governor's term to three years, and shortening the time within which he can retain bills for signature; those designed to check the incurring of indebtedness by State or local governments on behalf of railroad or other corporations, and those providing for punishment as a criminal offence of giving or taking of bribes by members of the Legislature or others holding office under the laws of the State. Those supposed adopted are intended to check special legislation, canal jobbery, and alienation of the sinking funds.

KANSAS.

ATCHESON, November 7.—The Daily Champion has official returns from twenty-seven counties, and reported majorities in twenty-six others. The majority for Osborn, Republican, in these counties is 10,342. The counties to hear from will increase this majority about 3,000 or 4,000. All the other candidates on the Republican State ticket, except State Treasurer, will have majorities exceeding that given for Governor from 3,000 to 5,000. The candidate for State Treasurer falls behind the Governor's vote 2,000 or 3,000. The Champion also has returns from ninety-one Representative districts, showing the election of sixty-three Republicans, twenty-four Democrats and Reformers, two Independent Republicans, and two elected on local issues, politics unknown. The State Senate will stand: Republicans, nineteen; Democrats and Reformers, thirteen. One district is yet in doubt.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, November 8.—The Tribune has official returns from seventy-two counties in Illinois, not including Cook, which show the following vote: For State Treasurer, Ridgeway, Republican, 106,501: Carroll, Democrat, 66,378; Gore, Independent or Farmers, 56,848; Superindendent of Public Instruction: Powell, Republican, 108,681; Eller, Democrat and Independent, 120,760. Of the thirty counties to hear from officially, there are twenty-three besides Cook, which gave opposition majorities.

ARKANSAS.

LITTLE ROCK, November 7.—Enough official returns have been received to know certainly that the entire county ticket of the Democrats is elected—as heretofore stated, L. C. Gause in the First, W. F. Clemons in the Second, W. W. Wilshire in the Third, and Thomas M. Gunter in the Fourth Districts. The latter is a member of the present Congress. Gause is contending for Hodge's seat in the present Congress. Wilshire was ousted last May, and the seat given to Gause. He now defeats Hynes, the present Congressman at large, by at least 4,000.

ARIZONA TERRITORY.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—H. J. Stevens has been elected Delegate to Congress from Arizona by about two hundred majority.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, November 7.—The official count of Congressional votes in the Fourth District gives the election to Frost, Republican, by a small majority.

THE CAPITAL.

WASHINGTON, November 7, 1874.

The Safe Burglary Trial

was resumed to-day. A copy of a dispatch sent to Williams from Washington, and signed "Harry," was produced.

Jesse Ward, of Newton, N. J., was called for the defence. He said he would not believe Zirruth under oath.

Harrington requested witness to speak louder.

Judge Humphreys—Well, pause a minute, now, gentlemen. This examination must be conducted according to the rules. One of the leading counsel must conduct the examination.

Harrington—I am one of the parties to this case, your Honor.

Judge Humphreys—I know you are, and you or your counsel must conduct the examination. You can do it if you want to, but not both of you at one time.

Harrington—I don't think your Honor understands my position here.

Judge—Yes, I do understand your position here.

Harrington—I want the Court to understand my ——

Judge—I do understand you. Just sit down, now, Mr. Harrington, sit down.

Harrington (sitting down)—I want the Court to understand—

Judge—The Court understands your position exactly, but your position does not prevent the rule from being carried out. One of the leading counsel on each side must conduct these examinations. Now go on with the case.

Testimony for the defence was resumed, when a number of persons swore that Whitely was in Boston on the 5th of April.

The Court then took a recess.

After the recess further testimony was taken to show that Whitely was not in New York on the 5th or 6th of April last, as witnesses for the prosecution swear.

The Court adjourned till Monday.

HORRIBLE CRIME.

A Man Murdered and His Body Thrown Into a Boiler Furnace—The Arms and Legs Burned Off.

CINCINNATI, November 8.—A most brutal and revolting mysterious murder was committed at the tannery of Henry Freiburg, on Livingston street, some time between ten o'clock last night and daylight this morning. One of the workmen went to the tannery this morning, and looking into the boiler furnace, observed upon the half consumed fire the body of a man, the arms and legs burned off. Herman Schilling, a workman of the tannery, who slept there at night, was missing. The body was extracted and identified as that of Schilling. In the stable were signs of a desperate encounter. A bloody pitchfork lay on the ground, and blood stains formed a trail to the furnace in the tannery. Within the enclosure in which the stable was located three fierce mastifs were running loose. From this and other circumstances it was inferred that the murderers must be perfectly familiar with the premises as well as with the habits of the murdered man.

International Billiard Tournament.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The billiard tournament was resumed to-day by a game between Ubassy and Daniels, which the former won in the twenty-sixth inning, the latter being 104. This game was followed by one between Vignaud and Slossan, of Chicago. The latter made a gallant struggle for victory, and scored 276, when Vignaud got the balls in the corner and ran out.

Joe Dion and Maurice Daly then played a game. Dion won in the twenty-sixth inning, Daly making only 260. In the thirteenth inning Dion made a run of 150. Daly made a run of 68. Ubassy and Rudolph followed in a game, which the latter won, Ubassy scoring 296.

The Turf.

PHILADELPHIA, November 7.—In the trot to-day for $1,000, at Point Breeze Park, between American Girl and Copper Bottom, the latter was distanced in the first heat. Time—2:25.

CHICAGO, November 8.—At Dexter Park this afternoon, in the trotting race for a purse of $1,000, there were six entries and four starters. Observer won in three straight heats, Badger Girl second, John H. third, Ohio Boy fourth. Time—2:31½, 2:34½ and 2:27.

In the running race, mile dash, for a purse of $3,000, Little Frank won, Lancer second, China Boy third. Time—1:52, 1:50, 1:51½, and 1:51¾.

FOREIGN.

The Carlist Revolution.

Irun Reinforced by Republican Troops.

SPAIN.

The Siege of Irun.

MADRID, November 7.—The force engaged in the siege of Irun numbers 1,500. The fire is irregular and ineffectual. The steady advance of the Republican army from Vittoria is announced.

Irun Reinforced.

BAYONNE, November 7.—Gen. Loma, with eight battalions of Republican troops to reinforce the garrison of Irun, reached that town yesterday. There have been many incendiary fires in Irun since the bombardment began.

CHINA.

The Formosan Difficulty Settled.

SHANGHAI, November 8.—The difficulty between China and Japan has been amicably arranged. China agrees to pay an indemnity of 500,000 taels, in consideration of which the Japanese troops are to be withdrawn from Formosa.

AUSTRIA.

The Von Arnim Dispatches.

VIENNA, November 7.—Leecher, chief editor of the Press, has been examined about the publication in that paper of the Von Arnim dispatches. He refused to state from whom the dispatches were obtained.

BY MAIL.

From Japan.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 7.—The steamer China brings Yokohama dates to October 14th. The murderer of Mr. Haller, North German Consul, was beheaded on the 26th of September. Takaki and Tomita, Consuls to San Francisco, arrived on the steamer to-day.

Corea promises to send to Japan the heads of all those who insulted the Government.

The Formosan difficulties had not been settled, and war between China and Japan still seemed imminent.

The ram Stonewall, reported ashore in the typhoon, has been found to be all right.

Japan has purchased more transport ships to be used in case of war with China. They have purchased the French steamer Charles Albert.

CHABLOTTE CUSHMAN.

Her Farewell Performances on the Mimic Stage.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The admiration and esteem inspired by art and the career of Miss Charlotte Cushman were aptly illustrated by the presence of the crowds that assembled at the matinee performances at Booth's Theatre to-day. Long before the hour appointed for the beginning of the performance numbers of people gathered about the building, and on opening the doors they surged in an unbroken stream into the theatre, the greatest number ladies, many bearing boquets. The Twenty-third street entrance of the theatre was tastefully adorned. The interior decorations were elaborate. Around the upper gallery appeared the arms of all the States of the Union, while on the lower gallery were hung festoons of red, white and blue drapery, amid which strings of clinging vines and clusters of grapes were artfully disposed. Throughout the performance the greatest enthusiasm was manifested, and no opportunity was missed by the throng of people present to express their admiration of their illustrious countrywoman.

The evening demonstration far surpassed that of the day. Twenty-third street from Broadway to Sixth avenue was ablaze with lights and filled with a crowd that needed a large force of police to keep in order. Many houses in the neighborhood of the theatre, and the theatre itself, were illuminated. The scene inside of the theatre was of the most inspiriting nature. The audience was one of the brightest and best ever gathered within even a metropolitan theatre, and included high civil and military officers and those well known in the literary and art worlds. Every sitting had its occupant, and the corridors and lobbies were filled. The play selected was "Macbeth." Throughout the representation Miss Cushman was most generously applauded, and at the close came before the curtain in answer to loud calls of the people. While preparations were making for the farewell exercises, bands of music engaged the audience. At the close of a well performed overture, the curtain was raised, and members of the Arcadian Club filed upon the stage from one side, while from the other issued Miss Cushman, attended by lights of the dramatic profession. William Cullen Bryant stepped forward and made a brief address to Miss Cushman, and finished by placing the laurel on her brow.

A poem by R. S. Stoddard was recited, and Miss Cushman made a feeling reply, in which she said toward the close: "On making my final representations upon the mimic scene in the various cities of the country, I have reserved to myself the right of meeting you again where you have made me believe that I give you the pleasure which I receive myself at the same time—at the reading desk."

The programme for the theatre having been ended, Miss Cushman entered her carriage and was driven to the Fifth Avenue Hotel between double lines of flambeau bearers—the members of literary and art societies of the city. A grand serenade followed, and the farewell representation of Miss Cushman on the mimic stage was brought to a close.

LOUISIANA.

Arraigned for Violating the Enforcement Act.

NEW ORLEANS, November 7.—Judge Collin and Mumford McCoy, Commissioners of election in La Fourche Parish, were arraigned to-day before Commissioner Craig, charged with violating the Enforcement act by depositing fifty-three ballots in the name of as many lawful voters in their absence and without their consent.

The Contempt Case.

Lieut. Hodgeson and Marshal Selye appeared before Judge Trimble at Vienna this morning, charged with contempt of Court in disregarding a writ of habeas corpus issued by the Judge. The sentence of the Court as to both was ten days' imprisonment in the parish jail, and a fine of one hundred dollars and the costs of arrest, the sentence being carried out. The cutting of telegraph wires will come next.

Sheriff Kavanaugh, of Jackson, left this morning for Vienna to arrest Selye on a warrant based upon indictments for kidnapping Dr. S. Holars. It is rumored that pardons have been forwarded by Kellogg for Selye and Hodgeson.

FARMERSVILLE, November 7.—Judge Trimble urges the Governor to recall the pardons issued in the case of Selye and Lieut. Hodgeson, committed for contempt, for the reason that their conduct in several instances was outrageous and oppressive, the citizens feeling that they have been outraged by these parties and are indignant at their course while scouring the country. The Judge is satisfied that if the law is permitted to take its course, not only in the case of contempt of his order, but also in cutting telegraph wires, in the assault with a pistol on Mrs. Patterson, and other cases, the people will abide the action of the court, but if pardoned and turned at liberty, he is of the opinion that they could not leave the country so great would be the feeling against the prisoners. Before leaving Vienna, the Judge took every precaution to insure their safety. While in the Vienna jail a plan was laid for their escape. Much excitement prevails in North Louisiana, and there is a full determination on the part of the citizens to assist Judge Trimble in carrying out the law, which he will do.

The St. Martins Parish Prisoners.

NEW IBERIA, November 7.—Victor Lagnar, Casemere Wiltz, Edmund Vorhees, Adolph Patton and Oscar Durand, arrested for violating the Enforcement act in St. Martins parish last Wednesday, leave here to-morrow evening with Deputy Marshal Steele, to appear before the United States District Court, they having waived an examination before the Commissioner and failed to furnish bail.

PERSONAL.

Ex-County Treasurer J. F. Denniston is back from the West.

Fred Brandt's ability as a billiard player secured him the gold medal.

Dodds won the champion cue at the billiard tournament which closed on Saturday night.

Charlie McOwen arrived home on Friday from a three months tramp through Europe. Charlie belongs to the boys that believe there is no place like home.

Police Commissioner Duff wants everybody to know that he is not the defeated candidate for District Attorney nor Secretary of the Water Committee.

S. A. Taggart, Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Associations of Pennsylvania, will start for Chambersburg to hold the first of a series of local conference and evangelical meetings to be held among the associations in all parts of the State the coming winter.

He called through the speaking tube to the operator in the Fire Alarm Telegraph Office to sound an alarm, which was done from box 21, and in an almost incredibly short time the steamers were on the spot, but their services were not needed, as the watchman, assisted by Janitor Born and Assistant Chief Hamill, attached the hose at City Hall, and in a very few minutes were throwing a stream of water that soon extinguished the fire. It is supposed to have originated from the range in the Continental restaurant, which is directly under McFarland's store. But little damage was done.

Self-Raising Buckwheat Flour.

This flour is prepared for instant use. All that is necessary is to make a batter with sweet milk or water, and your cakes are ready to bake; it saves the trouble of setting sponge and keeping it along from day to day; it makes a lighter, sweeter and more toothsome cake than can be had in any other way. Sold in six pound sacks by all the grocers. Also a superior quality of self-raising wheat flour for biscuit, cakes and pastry. Put up by S. S. MARVIN & Co.

EPISCOPALIANISM.

The Pastoral Letter of the Bishops Read in the Churches Yesterday—The [illegible] Important Document.

[illegible] the Protestant Episcopal community was taken up with the reading of the pastoral address of the Bishops, which was adopted at the Convention in New York, which closed its session last week. The following synopsis gives the points of interest and importance, and will show the general scope of the document:

The Honored Dead.

The pastoral referred, in the first instance, to the fact that within the three years which had elapsed since the last pastoral letter, not a few of the members of the Episcopate had been released from their earthly ministries. Most suggestive, it said, was this roll-call of departed brethren, so various in gifts and age, in the work given them while they lived, and the manner of death appointed them to die. Very fragrant was the memory of their Christian virtues, and well assured their hope that, in the day which would try every man's work of what sort it is, they would find mercy and the reward of grace.

Steady Progress of the Church.

The reports which had come before the Bishops afforded, the pastoral stated, gratifying evidence of even and steady progress throughout the whole Church. Besides the mere increase of numbers, there was expansion and growth in the agencies designed to seek Christ's sheep, and to keep them from harm. New dioceses had been erected, additional missionary Bishops had been appointed, Christian schools were established. To-day more than ever in the Church men and women were rendering to God their personal service,—not merely sending others, but going themselves to seek the lost, to instruct the young, and to nurse the sick.

The Missionary Work.

After expressing their sense of the exceeding value of the woman's work that had been done in the Church, and their desire to encourage its more extended efforts, the Bishops went on to state that they had, with the concurrence of the clerical and lay deputies, restricted the jurisdiction of the foreign Missionary Bishop at Yeddo to the Empire of Japan, and they proposed to consecrate another Bishop for the work in China, and yet another to preside over their missions in Africa. Measures had been devised to place the infant Church in Hayti on an assured basis. At home, four new Missionary Episcopates had been created, for Northern Texas, for Western Texas, for Northern California, and for New Mexico and Arizona. All these deserved vigorous support, and would require enlarged contributions.

Devotional Spirit in the Church.

Besides this external growth in the Church, they had reason to believe that there was a higher sense among many of our people of the saintliness of their Christian calling, and a yearning after a more complete conformity to the likeness of the Pure and Holy One. They noted, with much satisfaction, the wide circulation of books by living writers which treated of the life of God, in the soul of man, and the large demand for the well-worn manuals of devotion which had come down to us from our Anglican doctors. They might not forget that there was danger in the very restlessness of our religious activities, without these correctives of quiet meditation and personal communion with the Father of all spirits. In contrast with these encouragements stood out the fact that the supply of candidates for holy orders was inadequate to meet the demand created by the organization of new congregations.

Religious Freedom Discussed.

The passion of the age we live in, the Pastoral pointed out, was freedom; its watchword, liberty. Noble words were these, if used in their true significance, and therefore they purposed to admonish the hearers which they had as covenanted children of God and to exhort them that they should hold it fast. Christian liberty was a freedom with limitation indeed, but limited in those respects only wherein the absence of restraint would be another name for vassalage and cruel bondage. The true meaning of the Christian liberty whereof they spoke was illustrated by the faith they professed, by the obedience they rendered, and by the love which should animate their service. First came the liberty of Christian faith. To have faith in God was the first precept of our holy religion. The sanctified intellect delighted to explore every department of knowledge, to decipher the strange legend impressed upon the once fluid rock, to unroll the papyrus, to analyze the mysterious processes of human thought and consciousness. But none the less were we free to recognize eternal truths, and, unappalled by the mysteries or seeming contradictions, to affirm the verity of the Christian story, which it was unreasonable to deny.

A Word of Warning.

The Church sought not to put out the eyes of scholars and investigators. She gladly welcomed all their contributions to human knowledge and to the wealth of human thought. But she warned her children, in the presence of these "little systems" which "have their day and cease to be," that they must not enslave themselves to the tyranny of transient theories, and forego their right to hold fast that which is the same yesterday, to-day, and forever. In the next place, Almighty God had been pleased to give not only faith, but a discipline as well. And this appointed discipline was liberty, not bondage. It was liberty to be the members of a great army, instead of lonely adventurers—soldiers with a claim for guidance, protection, and sympathy, with a right to demand their place beneath the shade and beside the wells of every Elim where the army found its camp; it was liberty to have over them in the Lord men who had not dominion over their faith, but were helpers of their joy; who preached Christ Jesus the Lord, and themselves their servants for Jesus' sake, joying and rejoicing if they might be offered up upon the sacrifice and service of their faith. Their clergy had large liberty; should they abuse the gentleness of Christ and the patience of their mother, by pressing their own fancies and self-conceits to the utmost range of canonical endurance? Should they usurp the functions of the body that commissioned them, and seek to make the Church more evangelical or more catholic than her own formularies and ritual affected to be?

Amusements and the Home Circle.

The Pastoral especially warned those to whom it was addressed against civil divorce without adequate cause; admonished them that they should be studious to make the day of rest and praise honorable and holy, to maintain all the sanctities of the Christian home, to avoid frivolity and riot, and to take care that charity, as well as justice, restrained them in asking all their dues, or in seeking their lawful profit. Special admonition was also given against a laxity of morals which tolerated the participation by Christian men and women in amusements which outraged decency, and inevitably soiled the purity of those who shared in them. In these respects the Bishops stated that they meant plainly to specify the numerous indecencies enacted on the stage, and the improper familiarities which characterize some—not all—of the amusements of the social circle.

Religious Education.

The importance of religious education was referred to, and lastly admonition was given concerning the precious liberty of love. The whole Gospel was redolent with it,—with a broad, comprehensive, all-embracing love, appointed, like Aaron's rod, to swallow up all the other Christian graces, and to manifest the spiritual glory of God in Christ. A church without love! What could one augur of a Church without faith, or a Church of Christ without hope? But love was a higher grace than either faith or hope, and its absence from the Church was just the absence of the very life-blood from the body.

A Prayer for Abundant Blessings.

In conclusion, the Bishops prayed that God's blessing might rest upon the homes of their hearers, so that they should be pure and happy, the very nurseries of a long line of kings and priests with God; and upon their farms and their merchandise, their labors and their business, so that their cup might run over, abounding chiefly in that godliness with contentment which was a great gain. Might it rest upon their churches, so that they should be to the sinsick houses of healing, and to the great company of believers the very gate of heaven. Might it abide with the patient missionary, so that when most alone he should not be alone; upon the bereaved, the sick, the dying, the tempted, and the friendless. Might that blessing so abound that not one of them should fail in the wilderness through unbelief, but that all might receive at last that sentence of which all earthly benediction was but the anticipation, the "Come, ye beloved children of my Father," which put away forever all sorrow and fear.

Annual Meeting Held Last Evening in the First Presbyterian Church—Large Attendance—Interesting Exercises—A Brief Summary of the Speeches.

[illegible] Young Men's [illegible] the First [illegible] room being filled [illegible]

The exercises were opened with a voluntary on the organ by Prof. C. C. Mellor, followed by an anthem from the choir, after which Rev. J. H. Ebbert read the fourth chapter of Second Corinthians—prayer by Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D.

Before singing the first hymn, as printed on the programme, the President announced the absence of Prof. Bliss, of Chicago, who was to have been present to lead the singing, but said the choir had kindly consented to fill the vacancy, and accordingly asked all to join in singing, "Christ for the world we sing."

The Annual Report.

At the conclusion of the singing, resident H. K. Porter proceeded to deliver his report, which was listened to with arked attention. He reviewed the past history of the association, referring to its open rooms for the accommodation of all those who were inquiring after knowledge. They had been a place of resort for the stranger as well as the friends at home. Mention was made of the evening lectures and of the concerts, for which thanks were returned. The Sunday afternoon lectures were highly commended, and the speaker stated that arrangements had been made for their continuance during the present winter. The cottage prayer meetings have been begun for the winter, and the association is now extending its work by going among the railroad men. In this it had received the co-operation of the prominent railroad officials. He stated that still another movement was on foot, which had for its object the addition to their ranks of the German element of society. He also stated that the entire organization was in a prosperous condition, and only needed the support which it deserved in order to make it instrumental in the accomplishment of much good.

ADDRESS OF DR. WILSON.

At the conclusion of the report Rev. Dr. S. J. Wilson was introduced, and proceeded by saying that he hoped he appreciated the situation and the interest which had brought together the large audience present. He spoke of the church as being militant and said she must fight, so with a man, he must battle with the world, but shall the church fight alone? She should organize, and we should identify ourselves with the Lord's disciples in an organized capacity.

When the Apostle John wrote, he addressed his epistle to young men, because they were strong in faith and hope. We are not looking forward to a battle. We are in the midst of the fight, and what has the Lord Jesus to do with drones and persons who refuse to work? The young guards of the church will bear the banners of the cross to final victory.

The field is the world, but we must look especially to the cities. Cities rule the world.

There must be a living, aggressive christianity in these great centres of power. In case we fail to hold control, as a christian nation, of our cities, it will cease to be a christian country. God has favored us by casting our lots in one of these great strongholds. When the world is traveling by rail it will not do for the church to travel by coach. Let Christianity be active, real, and let it be carried personally to every man who has not accepted it.

In spiritual matters power does not always reside with numbers. We do not need numbers so much as real consecration, then one can chase a thousand and two can put ten thousand to flight.

Shame should burn the cheek of the young man who will fail to take up the work in any church and carry it forward. He should go out and visit the poor. If young men do not do this, who can we look too to do it. One marked feature in the Young Men's Christian Association is, it loves the bible. Its members study it. They court the investigation of the scripture. With such a volume as this, what more can they ask to insure success. Other nations look upon this as one of great christian power, and is it not a great privilege to live at this time and in this country; but it is indeed much more desirable to live and be a young man with such a field of labor before him. He should live so that he may rise to the level of his responsibilities and be able to do much good in the world. The Doctor closed by making an eloquent appeal to the young men of the congregation to engage in active work. The audience then joined in singing "Sing a new song to Jehovah," when the President announced that a contribution would be taken to defray the expenses of the association for the coming year.

ADDRESS OF MAJOR WHITTLE.

Major D. W. Whittle, of Chicago, was next introduced who endorsed every word which the previous speaker had said. He believed in a personal experience, that a man should know for himself the powers of religion. Speak to men who yield to their appetites, and they know that it is wrong—that they ought to live differently, but they lack the moral power to resist their temptations. A man must have help in his will power, and he cannot get that from his fellow man. He cannot stand up and be a man under such circumstances without help from God. A beggar does not go to a beggar for bread, but goes to a rich man where he knows there are supplies. So a man must go to God who can supply every want. Men have of late been standing aloof, and allowed women to go forth and perform what they ought to have done. They have allowed them to go to saloons and offer prayers, which they should have offered, and the reason is because it costs too much to save a man.

We must have power—that which God gave to his Son, which is none other than the influence of the Holy Ghost. This is what the church needs and what young men must have in order to be successful. The Spirit works through men's hearts and they cannot reach their fellows for good without its influence. Talk of worldly amusements, such as balls and theatres. Do you think Christs Apostles asked this question as to whether or not these things were wrong?

The mission of the Young Men's Christian Association is to seek and to save those who are lost, but many think it costs too much to be Christians. Notwithstanding this, we must go out and bring lost souls to Christ. Many care but little for any one but themselves, when they should labor for the salvation of all those around them. We are not to go to heaven alone, we must take all we can with us. Persistent labor is what is necessary—taking hold of a work and sticking to it. There is no agency so powerful to assist us as the gospel of Christ, and there is none who will be a more consistent friend and supporter than the Son of God. The Major concluded his remarks by exhorting his hearers to earnest work and undivided effort. The Doxology was sung at the close of the address, when Rev. R. J. Alsop led in prayer and pronounced the benediction, after which the audience dispersed.

THE ITALIANS AGAIN.

More Trouble at the Armstrong Works—Sheriff Hare Called Upon for Aid.

On Saturday morning the Deputy Sheriff of Westmoreland county called upon Sheriff Hare and informed him that there was trouble again at the Armstrong coal works opposite Buena Vista, and requested him to quell the disturbance. Accordingly Deputies Fife, Stubbs and Sane were sent to the scene of trouble with full instructions to obtain the names of the rioters that they might return to the city and make information against them, and have them arrested. It appears that the last shooting has come from the Allegheny county side of the river, and that the citizens on the opposite side are becoming alarmed, claiming that both life and property are endangered by the flying bullets. The sheriff seems determined to bring this matter to a final issue.

A MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

An Italian Receives Injuries Which Result in His Death.

At the Armstrong Coal Works it is said that on last Wednesday an Italian was taken from one of the coal mines of Armstrong & Dickson with his breast and shoulders horribly crushed and mutilated. He was taken to his home, where he expired a few minutes afterward. The next morning he was buried in the Verner (Catholic) cemetery. There was no inquest. No one seemed interested enough to notify the coroner, and it was pretty generally accepted that he had met his death by being struck by falling state, though so far no one has taken the trouble to go and look whether any slate had fallen or not. The matter will no doubt be thoroughly investigated, as the cause of his death is wrapped in mystery.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A Man Instantly Killed.

On Saturday morning a man named Halings attempted to cross the track of tee Allegheny Valley Railroad, at Phillipsburg, when he was struck by an approaching train, which threw him some distance, killing him instantly. It is not known whether he failed to notice the train, being deaf and unable to hear, or whether it was through carelessness. He was quite old, but we were unable to learn any of the particulars.

Don't Care Whether School Keeps or Not.

There is a degree of independence about the boyish declaration which is very attractive. Some great good is supposed to be attained, and the young rascal—well, the fortunate men who gobble up the great prizes of the Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky on November 30th, will also feel like being independent, and they too will be shouting—we don't care whether school keeps or not.

Comb Honey.

We are regularly in receipt of supplies from California, Ohio, Virginia, and other points. We buy direct from the most reliable producers, and it is our intention to maintain the Standard of our Goods, so that our Name upon the Packages will be a guarantee to the consumer that they are really getting honey in its purity.

So much Adulterated and Impure Honey has heretofore been offered for sale that many persons think it an impossibility to procure a Pure Article unless they buy it in the original boxes, and in that way they have to pay as much per pound for the glass and wood composing the boxes for the honey, which makes it very expensive.

We put it up actual net weight in one, two and three pound packages, and in a short time it will be found for sale in all the principal Retail Groceries in this vicinity.

IT IS said that Queen Victoria has strictly forbidden any member of the royal family to visit our Centennial Exhibition. Very natural.

WENDELL PHILLIPS has become a contributor to the Chicago Advance, and has an article in it, urging the passage of the Civil Rights bill, "as the capstone and completion of the war's work."

THE Philadelphia Press puts it as follows: "For Pennsylvania the elections of Tuesday means a change of party leadership. The people demand to be led by men who can see beyond a precinct, and whose swords are drawn honestly for the common cause."

OUR people may not be aware of it, but in Western Nebraska thousands of men, women and children are actually starving to death. Their crops failed, or were locust eaten, and they are absolutely without food. Ought we not remember them in their need?

IT IS now stated that the Von Arnim trouble, in Germany, so far from representing a conspiracy, grew out of the most natural causes possible. Von Arnim's successor at Paris discovered that certain copies of registered correspondence was missing and wrote for them. All the remaining trouble very naturally followed.

SO FEW of our ticket in this county is elected, that we may be pardoned for specially rejoicing that Newmyer and Montooth and Hawkins are elected. Their cases hung in doubt till the official count decided the result. These are all good Republicans and worthy men, and we believe every true-minded Republican will rejoice that they are safe out of the general wreck. We have other good men elected, but their election was early known to have occurred.

FROM all parts of the country, the election story is alike in one particular,—thousands of Republicans kept away from the polls. They represent the reserve strength of the party, that is too devoted to the principles it represents to vote against it, and sufficiently convinced that it needed rebuke for its own good, to lead it to refuse to vote for its candidates. About half of the Republican vote of the country was polled, not more. If all shall be made right, that vote is sure for 1876.

THE talk is that the Democracy will favor Banks as Speaker of the House. The movement will occasion a severe fight, as Fernando Wood will not be put down without a struggle; but if Banks is elected, it will show more sense than we are as yet willing to credit the Democracy with. Banks is an able, fair-minded man, and will undoubtedly administer the Speakership, so far as merely presiding over the deliberations of Congress is concerned, with eminent ability. We will not accept the prophecies of his elevation, however, until they are verified by facts.

LET us turn to cats. Politics have had their day, and the ornate appeals of political orators are things of the past. Even the wild jollification of the extra stimulated Democracy over the goat's tail has come to an end, and a dearth of variety has fallen upon the country. The persistent use of one kind of food is sure to pall the appetite, and even election returns are not perpetually digestible. Why not cats, then? They have just been holding the sixth annual exhibition of cats, in the English Crystal Palace, and the journals of that delightfully solemn country have been gravely recording the facts. After due inspection of Tabbies, blue, silver, spotted, brown, red, and brown-spotty, and even of "cats belonging to working-men,"—the deliberate conclusion was reached that "Totty," the short-haired, tortoise-shell, was the cat of cats,—the prize animal of the entire exhibition. Upon his great, gentle head, fell the honors of the occasion. He was, to speak in the parlance with which we have been so familiar for a few days, "triumphant," "victorious," "successful against all competitors." Mr. Hopkins knows what it means. But we are glad to say he was a modest, quiet cat, as peaceful and orderly as he was victorious.

JAMES T. FIELDS, who is now delivering his course of lectures in Philadelphia, made a remark, in introducing his lecture on John Wilson, of Edinburgh, with which we cordially agree. It was that the study of the English language and the literature of that language did not hold that pre-eminent position in our schools, academies and colleges to which it is entitled both on account of the wealth of the mineral ore itself, the skill of the artisans who have fashioned it, and the grace and beauty of the manufactured product. Instruction in it is allowed very often to be secondary in importance to that in languages far inferior to it in importance in mind-cultivating capacity, and in the number and genius of its writers; and while we can hardly agree with Mr. Fields that there are many who have received the average American education who do not know whether Dryden lived before or after Shakespeare, we feel pretty confident that the ordinary student at college knows more about the Greek dialect of Homer than he does about the quaint but more beautiful English of Chaucer. We believe the time is drawing near when we will have a purely American system of text-books, in which the dead languages will be allowed a very limited place.

THE CHARTER ELECTION.

One of the immediate results of the election on Tuesday is the movement that is undoubtedly developed, looking to the holding of a new Municipal election. It assumes several phases. The Democrats, whose heads have been turned by the unexpected results of Tuesday, imagine that the people are anxious to fall into their arms, and are arranging to have an election held at the time they claim to be legal. How they will manage to get Mayor Blackmore to issue his proclamation, in the face of the one already issued, we do not know; but as he is a Democrat, this, of course, is a possibility. They hoped to have this election all their own way, under the impression that the Republicans will depend on the legality of the election already held. Then, by throwing the matter into the courts they hope to secure their adherents in power. This is their game.

The taxpayers have not proceeded far enough for us to credit them with a well defined plan. So far, they seem to desire to raise the legal issue at once, by securing the issue of a quo warranto calling upon those claiming to be elected to show by what legal authority they are entitled to assume office. They have gone so far, it is rumored, as to anticipate a favorable decision, and have selected from their own immediate number a candidate for the position of Mayor. A more formidable movement than either of these is that which is springing up among Republicans, who desire to have a better administration of the City Government, and who are unwilling to turn matters over to a new ring, like the Taxpayers' Union, or to the Democratic party. This proposes that the legality of the last Charter Election shall be fairly tested, and thus be prepared to secure the purification of the City Government without allowing it to pass into the hands of the Democratic party.

Turning to the question of the legality of the last Charter Election, it is but proper to admit that the prevailing opinion among lawyers is that it was clearly illegal. It has not yet been submitted to judicial decision, and was held in obedience to an opinion of the Attorney General of the State,—fair authority, but not one that is legally binding. Of course, we do not pretend to give an opinion on th[illegible] but simply stat[illegible] the subject, [illegible]te the fact when we say that no judicial decision has been made on the subject. The case decided by the Supreme Court, a few days since, was merely as to the claim, on the part of the Convention, of the power to declare the new Constitution valid without submitting it to the votes of the people. It had no reference whatever to the question now at issue. Our judgment is, that the subject should be promptly gotten before the Courts.

Going back of this to the root causes of the present agitation, we have no difficulty in understanding just where the trouble is. It is but the truth that the unmet charges and agitations over the management of City Hall affairs has determined the people to go to an extreme limit if need be, to secure a change there. Taxes have increased, and no sufficient explanation of the cause has been given. The GAZETTE has distinctly mentioned this, month after month, for a long time past, and pointed out, as explicitly as language could express it, that the people were entitled to a clear and explicit explanation, why taxes were increased, where the money went, and what the future probabilities are, as to an increase or decrease of taxation. We knew the feeling of dissatisfaction and alarm was spreading into the country, and that the people were rapidly passing into that frame of mind that would lead them to believe anything that might be started. Our statements and appeals secured no response such as should have been made, while rumors of buffoonery and insult, flaunted in the face of reputable persons, who respectfully and anxiously inquired for the facts, came to us from time to time. We are not able, to this day, to enter into a statement of the financial affairs of the city, that is satisfactory to our own minds. We have heard isolated reasons on different points, but generally a policy of secrecy and bravado has ruled. Is it strange that the people are alarmed and angered?

We do not say or believe that there is dishonesty in the management of the finances of the city. Nor do we believe the responsibility for what is done falls entirely on the municipal officials. But the people have not known the facts, and hence have become suspicious. Here, simply, is where the trouble is. The assaults of the Post and one or two "independent" papers have gained strength because of this, and the wildest of their assertions have come to be more or less believed.

Another source of deep dissatisfaction is the mismanagement of Water Bond affairs. A blight of misfortune seems to have fallen on that department of city administration from the outset. Good, honest, careful men, as regards their own affairs, and their personal character, prominent among whom was Mr. Burgwin, a Democrat, first had the subject in charge, but the loose operations of the Secretary eventuated in the jeopardizing of a large amount in bonds. A change was made, and affairs have drifted down to the present, with the Water Extension Fund in worse repute than ever. The finding of loose parcels of bonds, the disagreement between the Committee and its Secretary, the breaking open of the safe, the search after and the finding, days after, in the very drawers searched, new bonds, have all served to impress the people that neither wisdom, system, good sense, or any other commendable quality are involved in the water works management. We do not say that these things are true of them, but that the people believe them true. We have heard, far out in the county, that the management of City Hall affairs was a ruling cause for bolting, the people fearing that unless stopped, the evils would extend to them.

Taking all these things into account, it becomes the Republican party to be thoroughly alive to the movements that are impending. We do not believe for a moment that the people will trust the Democracy, provided they can have in nomination Republicans who command their confidence. If such nominations are not made, no one can predict the result; but we have many Republicans, qualified for offices to be filled, who will be elected easily, and by a triumphant majority. Our view is, that if an election is proclaimed, even if the legality of that last held shall not have been decided, it is the proper policy for the Republican party to put in nomination an entirely unexceptionable ticket, so that, however the decision may go, we shall retain the city government in Republican hands. It certainly will be the worst of folly to let matters go by default. And in order that we may be fully prepared for the emergency, the question of candidacy should be immediately taken into consideration, and names fixed upon, that we may not be compelled to select hurriedly at the last. We are warned by the events of Tuesday, and it ought to be clearly understood, that if the people did not hesitate to break away from the State and Congressional ticket, as a means of expressing their dissatisfaction with the city administration, they will be far more likely to repeat the operation, should a city election be held, unless a ticket that is entirely satisfactory is nominated. The election will have gone for nothing, if we do not learn wisdom from it.

In what we say above, we assume, of course, that the officials elected at the last Charter Election will claim their right to the offices to which they are elected. They should do this, in any event. It is a question that, election or no election, must be decided in the Courts. Of course none of them will recognize the legality of the proposed election by being candidates. Our view is that the question should be submitted to the Courts before the expense of an election is incurred.

REPORTS from Osceola, Ark., state that Jack Phillips, alias Dick Nolon, who outraged a white woman, was committed to jail by the magistrate, and while on the way to jail in charge of an officer, becoming alarmed at the crowd following him, attempted to escape by running, when he was fired upon by the crowd and literally riddled with bullets. The woman outraged was the principal witness against him.

A DUBUQUE boy has exploited great glory by his skill in charming venomous serpents. Master Maurice Vallandingham—for such is his name—permits the reptiles to twine about him, and their fangs he fears not. He began about a year ago with a rattlesnake, and has since made a Laocoon of himself with all the different serpents of the region. He has also set up as a Professor, and has a large class of other boys to whom he imparts his secret. Some fine day there will be a funeral in Dubuque, and it will not be a snake's funeral either.

YOUNG man, you feel a superiority to the whole human race, as you stand at the altar with your fair young bride. You would not change places with the President. Yet a few short years, a few whiskings of broom handles, an untimely stoppage or two of wafted flat-irons, and your weary body will rest under the swaying willow, while some young gallant will bring your late afflicted partner out to the cemetery on calm Sabbath evenings and whisper love in her ear, as together they strew peanut shells over your grave. "Oh, why should the spirit of mortal be proud."

IN Memphis, W. O. Harvey, of the firm of Ely, Harvey & Richardson, Frank M. White and several other prominent merchants, were arrested on Friday evening by United States Marshal L. R. Eaton, on warrants charging them with violation of the Enforcement act, in discharging colored men from their employment for refusing to vote the Democratic ticket last August. They appeared before the United States Commissioner Saturday and gave bonds in $2,000 each for their appearance at the next term of the U. S. Circuit Court. It is said five hundred similar warrants have been issued.

FOREIGN NOTES.

IN Paris they observe that young France is growing up fat. Obesity, which hitherto only attended maturer years, now seizes upon youth itself.

SEVERAL French artists sent their checks to Dejazet's benefit in this form "Good for a picture," and signed their names. These sold for good prices.

THE German Government, it is said, contemplates the erection of a new fortress in South Wurtemburg, to protect its frontiers from any attacks by way of Switzerland.

A DISPATCH from Rome says the Pope intended to receive a deputation on Friday morning, but fainted on entering the hall. The physicians declared his indisposition slight.

A SINGLE business house of Hamburg, Germany, controls the entire trade of the Samoa islands, in the South Pacific, and its agents are to be found in every part of Polynesia.

THE Danish Ministry has requested the Reigstag not to interpellate the Government respecting the expulsion of Danish subjects from Schleswig while the matter is under discussion with Germany.

HERE is something out of a French Republican paper of the present time, which sounds a little like '93: "You call us reds, but we have not that color yet; our purpose, however, is to become red with the blood of the whites." The whites are the supporters of Chambord and his white flag.

NEWS from Montevideo reports a terrific storm raging there. Several vessels in the harbor were driven ashore, and much damage has been done. The Government has ordered all the vessels in the ports of Uruguay, having on board arms and provisions for the rebels in the Argentine Republic, to be detained.

M. SCHLOSSMALER is reviving in France the art of making beautiful porcelain services. His work excels what is done at Sevres, and promises to retain for France the supremacy that she was losing. French journals rejoice over this as a National event, but it is odd that they can hang any national vanity on a name so evidently German.

THE animosity against Jews is increasing in Galicia. An Israelite, Israel Klak, bought a house at Korzow. The mob of the town gathered and chased the Jew and his family out of the house. He applied to the municipal authorities for redress, but received the reply that he must leave the place within two weeks, as Jews were "injurious to the community."

A ONE CENT BUSINESS.

How a Fortune is Made Through Buying and Selling Pennies.

There is a man in New York who is amassing a handsome fortune by buying and selling pennies, 2 and 3 cent pieces, and 5 cent. nickles. In many of the newspaper offices, news depots, ferry offices, retail houses where cheap goods are sold, bakeries and other places, the accumulation of small coin very often becomes so large as to be cumbersome. It cannot be disposed of, for coin is so plenty that customers object to taking it in change in any great quantity, and in the business houses where it is needed the regular sources of supply are always ample. The coin might be sent to the Philadelphia Mint for redemption, but the requirements of the redemption department are enough to discourage any business man. To send pennies to the Mint, they must be sorted and wrapped in packages of $5 each. Coin of each separate mintage must be put together. It will not do to mix the old-fashioned coppers with the bright or bronze-colored nickles, nor can a 2 or a 3-cent piece be mixed [illegible] with the pennies. If they are packed in this way they are not even counted at the Mint, but are shipped back to the sender without delay or notice of any kind. The law also prescribes that the coins shall be packed in iron-bound boxes, and shipped at the sender's expense. As coins are heavy, the cost of transportation is considerable. The officials count the money at their leisure, and sometimes the sender does not hear from his consignment for nearly a year. He thus loses the use of his money for that length of time. The combination of vexatious details prevents those who have an accumulation of coin from sending it to the Mint, and it seems as though the officials at Philadelphia intended that they should not be troubled with it. Every day a man rides to the newspaper and other offices in a buggy, and buys the coin which has been taken in from the newsboys and the customers. For the pennies and 2-cent pieces he pays 97 cents a hundred, and for the 3 and 5-cent nickels he gives 99 cents for a dollar's worth. The sellers are glad to dispose of the coins at this discount. The man then rides to about the only tradesmen in the city who desire a quantity of pennies,—the pawnbrokers,—and to them he sells the coins at par, taking their notes for three months in payment. The pawnbrokers who have shops among the poorer classes say that they need small denominations of fractional currency or coin, as many of their loans do not exceed 10 or 15 cents. Many poor persons pawn their articles of wearing apparel or trinkets only when driven to do so by the want of a single meal of food, and such are not particular as to the denomination of the money they receive. The pawnbrokers give their notes without interest, thereby gaining the use of the money for three months.

The Man Who Beat Butler.

Mr. Charles P. Thompson, the man who has made himself immortal by defeating Butler, made a speech at a jubilation meeting in Gloucester, Wednesday evening, in which he said:—"I stand now as no partisan. I am not the servant of the Democratic party; I am not the servant of the Republican party. I shall advocate those measures and only those measures that I believe to be for the common good. I shall never advocate a principle upon party grounds. I shall be unworthy of the confidence that has been placed in me if I understand what the Democratic party meant when they put me in nomination, which was that I should carry out those principles which I believe to be right—that I should serve my country first, and by serving my country I know I can best serve my party. In this canvass there are some important questions. One of them is the financial question. I know that my Republican friends who voted for me did so because I was sound on that question. You may ask me if I am in favor of the colored man. I answer, Yes, I am in favor of the white man and the colored man. I believe they are both entitled to equal rights under the Constitution. I believe in equality of rights and an equality of duties. I would not go for a law that would discriminate in favor of a white man or a black man. I want the same law for all.

Scandalous Scene at a Funeral.

An Irish paper says that at Parsonstown on a recent Sunday evening, on the occasion of the funeral of an old and respected Protestant inhabitant named Reade, whose remains were being interred in the old graveyard of Parsonstown, a scandalous scene took place. The funeral left the house about 4 o'clock, followed (or rather preceded) by an unusually large number of people, including many respectable townspeople of both persuasions. At the gate of the graveyard the corpse was met by Rev. Marcus McCausland, who proceeded to read the burial service, but the opening sentence was the signal for an outburst of yells, jeers and groans, and in a few minutes the coffin was seized and hustled into the open grave, when three fellows, who evidently were awaiting the signal, commenced throwing in the clay so as to cover the coffin. During this scene the rector endeavored to proceed with the service, but his voice was completely drowned by the shouts and execrations of the mob, who vented their rage by firing volleys of stones at the vaults and cheering for "Home Rule." The only cause that can be assigned for this display is that the deceased was through life a consistent Protestant, while his brother, who died some twelve years ago, and who married a Roman Catholic, was claimed by them to have died in the faith of their Church.

A Trades-Union of Women.

The women engaged in the bookbinding trade in London have formed a Trades-Union. It is styled the Society of Women Employed in Bookbinding. It proposes to give its members the ordinary advantages of such an organization and something besides. This latter is to consist of an employment agency, which will keep a record of the labor market for the benefit of the members. At present, the women, when out of work, often have to spend many days traveling from shop to shop in search of a vacancy. Hereafter they will find out at the agency the statistics of each shop. If the full plan is carried out, they will find there, too, board and lodging at least while they are out of employment. The Society will discourage strikes, which are now common in the bookbinding trade, and will try to arbitrate all disputes. The admission fee is 24 cents, which may be paid at a rate of 6 cents a week. There is also a subscription of 4 cents. Only "fee" members, i. e., only those who have paid a year's dues, can be helped out of the funds. They are to get, in case of sickness, $1.20 a week for eight weeks in the year. When a member dies, her relatives will receive $10 to defray the funeral expenses.

Spontaneous Combustion on Coal Laden Ships.

An unusual fatality has attended vessels carrying bituminous coal this season. Besides the destruction of several British ships through the spontaneous combustion of their cargoes four first-class American ships from English ports, and all hailing from Boston, have been destroyed from the same cause. The latest case is that of the ship Centaur, Captain Foster, bound from Liverpool to San Francisco, which was burned off the Marquesas Islands, and attended unfortunately with the drowning of the captain and his boat's crew. The other American ships were the Sierra Nevada, Pocahontas and Mogul, all large vessels, each averaging over 1,390 tons, one of them being on her first voyage, and the others comparatively new. The frequency of these disasters suggests the query whether there be something exceptional in the character of the English coal now being mined, rendering a change in its transportation necessary. It, at least, is deserving of investigation, and can hardly fail to attract the attention of those interested in bituminous coal transportation.—N. Y. Herald.

Sure Preventive to the Freezing of Water Pipes and Accidents of Similar Nature to Water Closets.

We beg leave to offer to the public our

Patent Automatic Water Closet,

which is Anti-freezing and Inodorous. It is the most durable Closet in the market, for the following reasons: It will not freeze. It is strictly self-acting. It does not cause any re-acting and bursting of pipes. It is free from all obnoxious odors, and therefore will improve the sanitary condition of our cities. It has no valves to get out of repair and leak.

With our valuable improvement obnoxious cesspools in yards are dispensed with, as direct communication is made with the sewer pipe.

The public are invited to call at our salesroom, and examine this valuable improvement in operation, where its great advantages can be seen at a glance, or send for circular containing full particulars.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, November 9, 1874.

Saturday was a day of unusual activity with our banks, the volume of business leading to the belief that the period of permanent activity has at length arrived. The offerings were large, of good class, and were readily taken. The banks are going through their Government examination, yet they are doing very excellently in meeting the demand that has come upon them. They regard it as cleary indicating a positive revival of business, and we have now very decided confidence that our manufactories are rather increasing in business than otherwise, and that the winter will be much better for the working classes than has been imagined.

One of the most surprising features in the current state of affairs in Europe is the fact that Germany appears to be unable to retain the stock of gold poured into her coffers by the French indemnity. In the last three months the stock of coin in the Bank of Prussia shows a reduction of £2,243,000, while the circulation of the bank notes has in the same time increased £1,576,600, the total paper circulation of the bank being nearly forty-three millions sterling, or about two hundred and fifteen million of dollars. This is the more remarkable because the Government has demonetized silver as a legal tender and substituted gold; and yet with ample resources in gold the stock of gold coin steadily deminishes, while the stock of silver augments because it is not demanded. In Germany, as in the United States, whatever way the national government turns, the combined force of the speculative money power is turned against it.

At the same time, by some strange means, the stock of gold in the Bank of France constantly accumulates, so that the country that paid the enormous indemnity seems to grow richer in gold, and the country that received that indemnity grows poorer in that precious metal. Why it is that the great bankers of Europe seem to work against the German Government policy and in favor of the French Government policy, we confess our inability to understand. For if the latter is endeavoring to resume the specie basis the former has not less certainly made gold the basis and aim of its whole financial system. These things cannot result from mere commercial influences, for Germany is as independent as France in that respect.

Our impression is that the real managing party in the whole affair is England. For it must be borne in mind that the great French loan was largely taken in London, which has, therefore, been the main operator as between the two countries. To pay up the indemnity she has drawn upon all available resources, and for a time the drain of bullion was severely felt in England. But the indemnity being paid, all the influences at the command of the English financiers have been set to work to get from Germany the vast hoard given her by the war; and as the English were deeply interested in French credit, all that could be taken from Germany has been added to the strength of France.

It is observable that these great managers are obliged to ship coin to and fro in their European operations, but such is their hold upon America that they never require any shipment of gold in their operations here. They handle enormous values here, and turn their capital over and over, piling up millions upon millions, and yet send us no actual money for the capital they invest here. This, too, is an essential part of their system. For if they were obliged to ship gold hither for their investments it would have to be taken from England, France and Germany, and that would interfere with their European plans. Of what avail, then, would it be for us to adopt the specie basis until we had arranged our finances with a view to real independence? It is evident that we could not maintain an adequate stock of coin.

—The Comptroller of the Currency will have his annual report completed this week. Sufficient time has not elapsed yet to enable him to make any new recommendations with regard to the act passed by the last Congress relative to national banks.

About $7,000,000 of national bank currency has been surrendered, which will be in excess of the amount asked for in the establishment of new banks. The Comptroller does not anticipate any call on the New England banks for upward of a year yet.

—Reports from the West announce the continued refusal of the Baltimore & Ohio to enter into the arrangements of the railroads represented at Saratoga. Whether this refusal will result in the revival of competition between the trunk lines remains to be seen.

NEW YORK, November 7, 1874

Money closed at 3 per cent. on call. Foreign exchange closed firm at 485½@489. Gold opened at 110, and closed at 110¼. The rates paid for borrowing were 1, 2, 1½, 2½ per cent., and flat. Prime mercantile paper is 5½@7 per cent. for double named, and 8 to 12 per cent. for single named. The clearings were $27,000,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed to-day $948,000, and received for customs during the week $550,000. The specie shipments to Europe today were $90,000, of which were $27,200 was gold coin, and the balance silver bars. Government bonds closed steady. State bonds were quiet and steady.

Cyrus J. Murray, of the firm of Murray, Meade & Co., wholesale dealers in shoes, at 129 Grand street, whose failure was announced yesterday, states that their liabilities will amount to about $250,000. He attributes the failure of the firm to the general shrinkage in business.

Stocks were strong during the last hour of business, and the highest prices of the week were made. Union Pacific and Pacific Mail were the leading features, the former rising to 36¼ and the latter to 45¾. Ohios rose to 30⅝, Northwest common to 39¼, St. Paul to 34⅝, Erie to 28¾, Lake Shore to 81½, and Rock Island to 98¾. In final sales there was a reaction of ⅛@⅜ per cent.

The activity and firmness in Union Pacific and Pacific Mail was due to reports that the competition between the two companies was likely to be adjusted on the basis of the Pacific Mail giving up its China business via the Isthmus.

The sales to-day include 23,000 shares Western Union, 33,000 Pacific Mail, 5,000 Erie, 26,000 Lake Share, 72,000 Union Pacific, 12,000 Northwestern, 9,000 St. Paul, 9,000 St. Paul preferred, and 1,000 Ohio & Mississippi.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH DAILY MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, Nov. 7, 1874.

There is nothing particularly important to be recorded in regard to trade in general merchandise; our merchants and manufacturers generally report business as being slow, that it is not up to what it usually is at this season of the year, although, perhaps, it is all that can reasonably be expected. The grain trade has been remarkably dull for some time past, but an early improvement in the demand is probable. Flour continues dull with a drooping tendency, and the grocery trade is by do means active. There is a fair degree of activity in the hog product, but prices are weak and drooping. In general produce business is dull, about the only change to note in prices being in Eggs, which have advanced 5@6c ⅌ doz within the past few days.

APPLES—Continue to arrive freely, and notwithstanding the demand is increasing, stocks are accumulating, and prices remain unchanged; $1.50@2,50 ⅌ bbl.

APPLE BUTTER—In kegs, 60@65.

BEANS—$2@2.25 ⅌ bushel.

BUTTER—The demand for the better grades is rather better, and we now quote at 27@32c for prime to choice roll.

BUCKWHEAT—3½@4c ⅌ lb.

CRANBERRIES—$10@15 ⅌ bbl.

CHESTNUTS—$2.50@3 ⅌ bushel; dull.

CHEESE—The market is steady, and fairly active, but prices remain unchanged; Ohio Factory, 16½@17; New York do, 17½@18.

EGGS—Strictly fresh, guaranteed as such, 30; pickled 20@25c, as to quality.

FLOUR—Continues dull, and prices are weak, but without quotable change. Spring wheat flours, $5,75@6 for Wisconsins, and $6,25@6,50 for Minnesotas; winter wheat, $6@6,25 for red and $6,75@7 for white. Rye Flour, $5,75.

GROCERIES—Sugars continue dull, and refined goods have declined ¼ of a cent within the past day or two, in first hands, with indications of a still further shrinkage. In regard to Coffee, there is but little to report, except that it is dull, and in view of the fact that the large proportion of the receipts have been of the finer qualities, roasting Coffees are still holding their own, while the better grades are lower. The latest advices from Rio Janeiro report the daily receipts there at between 15,000 and 16,000 bags. Molasses and Syrups continue quiet and unchanged.

GRAIN—While there is no improvement to note in the demand for Wheat in this market and no change to make in quotations, our dispatches, both from Chicago and New York, report those markets firmer. We continue to quote Penna and Ohio Red at $1,12@1,15, and amber and white, $1,18@1,20. The Oat market is possibly a shade firmer in sympathy with the advices from the West, but prices remain about as last quoted: mixed, 56@57c; Ohio white, 58½@59c; prime western do, 59½@60c. New ear Corn is in light supply and firmer in consequence; 65@67 (70 lbs to the bushel.) New shelled, 67@72, free in elevator, according to quality and condition. Old Shelled quiet and unchanged—quotable at 80@82 cts. Rye is steady at $1@1,05. Barley is firmer, under the influence of the advices from Chicago, but quiet.

HAY—There is a fair demand, and, in consequence of the limited receipts recently, the market is considerably firmer, but prices are without quotable change; baled, on track, $18@22 ⅌ ton, as to quality and condition, and loose, from country wagons, $25@30.

ONIONS—$5@4 ⅌ bbl.

MILL FEED—Continues dull, and with continued liberal receipts and stocks accumulating, prices are weak and drooping.

POTATOES—Selling on track, by the car load, at 85 to 90 cts for prime to choice Peach Blows and 65 to 75 for other kinds. Sweets firmer and in light supply; $3@3,50 ⅌ bbl for Baltimores, and $4,50@5 for Jerseys.

PROVISIONS—We have no important change to make in quotations, although both Chicago and Cincinnati were firmer on Friday. Following are the current rates:

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, SATURDAY, Nov. 7, 1874.

ARRIVALS.

Following were the arrivals of live stock for the week, and, to afford a comparison, we append those of the corresponding week also:

	This Week.	Last Week.
Cattle	362 cars.	444 cars.
Hogs	250 "	162 "
Sheep	54 "	92 "
Total	676	698

FREIGHTS.

Following are the prevailing rates on live stock from this point east ward:

To Philadelphia	25c ⅌ cwt
To Baltimore	25c ⅌ cwt
To New York	30c ⅌ cwt

CATTLE.

The run of cattle was unusually light, 82 cars less than last week, and 273 cars less than two weeks ago, and with such a heavy falling off in the supply, together with much more favorable advices from the East, the market reacted, and a sharp advance in prices was established. It is seldom that there is such a decided change in the general position of the market in so short a time, and while the trade generally were expecting a reaction, on the ground that one extreme generally follows another, yet it came sooner than was expected. Prices, as compared with this day week, may be quoted from ⅜ to ⅝ of a cent ⅌ lb higher; the great proportion of the supply was common in point of quality, consisting mainly of poor natives and common Texans hence the better grades sold most readily, and that, too, at relatively better prices. It is well enough to bear in mind that about two hundred cars out of the three hundred and sixty-two cars that arrived during the week were through consignments; Morris & Co, of Chicago, alone, had 113 cars, so that there were in reality only 162 cars on sale, whereas there have been nearly double that number on the market for some time, exclusive of the through stock. Included in the sales were 39 cars for Philadelphia, 19 cars for New York and some 78 cars were taken by country dealers and butchers; the purchases both for Philadelphia and New York were comparatively light, but it was owing to a scarcity of the right kind of stock, and not for want of buyers—the supply of good shipping cattle, even at the advance, was unequal to the demand. The market has just recovered the lost ground of the past three or four weeks, caused by the heavy run during the time in question, and the impression prevailed to-day that there will be a very good trade the coming week, unless there should be another glut, which is not probable. Prime shipping steers may be fairly quoted at 6½@6¾, although one bunch of fancy Southern Ohio steers, averaging 1,610 lbs, brought 7⅛; this was the best lot of cattle that has been in this market for many a day, and a little later in the season, they would have been sold for show cattle.

QUOTATIONS.

Prime to extra 1,400@1,500 steers	6,50@6,75
Medium to good 1,250@1,350 steers	5,75@6,25
Good 1,000@1,100 steers	4,75@5,50
Stockers, 800@900	3,00@4,00
Texans, as to quality	3,25@4,00
Bulls, as to quality	2,50@3,00

HOGS.

The "run," as will be seen, was much larger than that of last week, 250 cars, against 162 cars, an increase of 88 cars, a very important item at this season of the year: the market opened up tame on Monday, prices receded 20@25c ⅌ cwt as compared with Saturday, and there was a gradual decline from then up until Thursday, the decline during the time in question reaching from 50 to 60c ⅌ cwt. On Friday, however, the market stiffened up again, under the influence of an increased demand for shipment to both Baltimore and New York, and to-day the prices advanced from 15 to 20c ⅌ cwt, and the pens were pretty well cleared; the former sold at from 6¼ to 6½, and the latter at 6 to 6¼. Philadelphia hogs, however, are but little higher than they were during the middle part of the week, as the supply of this kind, especially within the past few days, has been fully up to the demand; quotable to-day at 6,60 to 6,70, whereas this day week the same kind brought 7,10 to 7,20.

SHEEP.

The "run" was the lightest we have had, if we mistake not, for several months, and the market stiffened up materially in consequence, and an advance in prices of from ⅛ to ½ a cent ⅌ lb as compared with this day week. So far as we could learn, there was nothing sold above 5c, and but very few at that, but prime 100 lb fine wool, we were reliably informed, would have brought a ⅛ to ¼ more. Quotations may be given at 5 to 5¼ for prime to extra 95@100; 4½@4¾ for 80 to 85 lbs. and 3¾@4¼ for 75 80 lbs. The supply of the better grades was not equal to the demand and a good market is expected the coming week in consequence. Lambs sold at from 5,35 to 6,50 according to quality and condition.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, Nov. 5, 1874.

CRUDE.

The Crude market was, if anything, a shade firmer to-day, but there was no quotable change in prices, as compared with yesterday; sales were reported at 72½@73¼ ⅌ bbl at Parker, for immediate shipment. Crude has undergone little or no change in prices all this week, hence it begins to look as if the market, for the time being, had touched bottom, although the general outlook does not, by any means, warrant the prediction that there will be an advance soon. On the contrary, with a production considerably in excess of the present consumption and stocks unprecedently large and still increasing, the probabability is that there will more likely be a decline than an advance, notwithstanding it is claimed that there is no margin for profit to the producer at current rates. Pittsburgh refiners have been buying very sparingly ever since the new freight schedule went into effect, and until the pipe line is completed, they will have the bulk of their oil transported by river, as the cost is much less than by rail.

REFINED.

Business in this important Pittsburgh interest continues very much depressed, and it is not generally expected that there will be much of an improvement this side of January or February. The time and attention of the trade, however, is more absorbed in solving the transportation problem than anything else: they will not rest satisfied until they have communication with the producing regions by pipe-line, and once this is secured, a very great point will have been gained. This, together with the outlet to the sea-board, by way of the Connellsville Railroad, will enable our refiners to cope successfully with all competing points. Cleveland included. There was a sale of a cargo reported in Philadelphia to-day at 10¾. Baltimore delivery is still quoted at 10¾ cents, at which rate there is little or no margin for profit, even by the Connellsville route.

BARRELS.

There is no improvement to note in the Barrel trade, nor is it likely that there will be this side of January, if then; we continue to quote at $1.30 for countries and $1.40 for city make.

IRON MARKETS.

Reports from New York, Cleveland, Philadephia and England.

NEW YORK—American Pig.—The depression in trade continues, and prices are, if anything, weaker in tone, through the necessity of realizing on the part of some of the companies. Stocks, particularly of Foundry Irons, are increasing, and purchases are shy, believing that there will be still further reductions in prices. In this condition of the market it is very difficult to quote prices. Sales are reported of 250 tons No. 1 at $28,50; 200 tons No. 1 Thomas, on private terms, and 500 tons Gray Forge, also on private terms. We quote No 1, $27@29; No 2, $26@27, and Gray Forge, $23@25. Scotch Pig.—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Scotch Iron, and trade is restricted to small lots for consumption. We quote Glengarnock at $33; Coltness, $40@42; and Eglinton, $37. Bar.—The Philadelphia mills reduced the card rates on the 2d inst, to 2.8c. Pittsburgh mills are selling at 2.5c. Rails.—There is little of interest to note in the Rail market. We quote Welsh, $45@50, gold, and American, $52@55, currency, for heavy section at mill. Old Rails.—The market is quiet. A sale is reported of 3000 tons old Ts, Western delivery, part at $27.—Iron Age.

PHILADELPHIA.—There is no material change to note in the situation of the Iron market in this city. The improved demand for Rails, both Steel and Iron, noticed last week continues, and is further strengthened by advices from abroad, which indicate greater favor for American railroad securities. In Pig Iron prices are strictly nominal, sales being made at purchasers' terms, at all, and governed by local charges for freight as well as the necessities of sellers. In Bars the Western cutting of prices has completely unsettled the market, and prices are again at sea. We hear of sales of Bars at as low prices as Pig Metal was sold at two years since, and certainly below cost of manufacture. In Rails, the transactions in Steel noted last week have been closed, and we hear of new contracts offering for considerable amounts. Iron Rails are also in better request, with, however, no improvement in prices. In the absence of any strictly reliable base upon which to quote, we give the following as prices ruling here, but shaded according to the views of seller and purchaser: Pig Metal—No. 1 Foundry, $23 to $29; No. 2, $23 to $26; Gray Forge, $23 to $25; White and Mottled, $18 to $20. Old Rails, $25 to $30. Scrap, $32 to $33.

CLEVELAND—The market presents few features of change, unless it be an indication of weaker prices. Holders of Iron have lost all confidence in any near improvement, and are not making any effort to sell unless their necessities compel them; for this reason quotations are not so much reduced as might be expected, but sales are made and Iron can be bought considerably lower than prices given. In all sales effected now the bearing of cash or time, and the credit and responsibility of the buyer, together with the necessities of sellers, all have a large influence in the price, and each point is fully canvassed, so that each sale is conducted on its own merit, and no satisfactory general price can therefore be given. The falling off of the mill demand has been more notable than any other feature, and consequently Gray Forge is proportionately weaker than other grades. Bessemer Pig alone, of all grades, seems to hold its own, and promises the earliest indication of improvement.

BRITISH IRON MARKET.—A cable dispatch to the Iron Age under date of 4th inst., says: Scotch Pig—The demand is steady and prices are firmer, with a large amount of business doing. The following are makers' quotations:

Coltness No. 1	105s
Gartsherrie No 1	103s
Glengarnock No 1	96s
Eglinton No 1	85s

Manufactured Iron.—The market is dull, under a small demand, and quotations are nominal. Best Staffordshire Bars, £10 5s to £11.

Rails.—The condition of the Rail market is unchanged, and prices continue weak. We quote Welsh, £7@7, 10s.

New York Wool Market—Monthly Review.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—We clip the following from Messrs Walter Brown, Son & Co.'s Circular: "At the opening of October the Wool market was very quiet and has continued so throughout the month, with but little change. The cause of this dullness is traced to the extreme depression in all classes of fine Woolens, and the slackening in the demand for the medium class of goods with worsted effects, which have been active until within the past few weeks. There is no doubt but that the manufacturers of fine woolen fabrics have had a hard time of it during the present season. With almost no exception their goods have been accumulating, and they are most of them well nigh discouraged. As a consequence there has been of late quite a reduction in the running time of these mills, and within the last week a considerable break in prices by selling agents, with the view to work off some of the surplus goods in their hands. The corresponding grades of Wool have been neglected during the past six or eight weeks, buyers taking only such lots as they absolutely needed, and instead of the advance which has been generally expected, we have to note a weaker feeling on the part of most holders, especially those who have paper maturing about this time. The general impression, however, is that all these Wools will be wanted before the close of the season, and those who have ample facilities for carrying them are not disposed to make any material concession to effect sales. Medium and Worsted fabrics have enjoyed a very good run of activity throughout the Summer, and the Wools suitable for this class have continued in demand, with constantly diminishing stocks, although the sales of these goods are not now so large as they have been, there is still a fair inquiry for them, and most of the producers are well sold up on their stocks, and look forward to closing the season with satisfactory results. We write thus at length on the goods question that our friends in the Wool-growing districts may appreciate the fact that the prospects for the raw material depend decidedly upon the condition of trade in the manufactured article; and this brings us to the subject of the meeting of the Wool trade, called on Monday last by the Chamber of Commerce, to discuss the question of a more equitable classification of wools imported under the present tariff. There is little doubt that the tariff as it has existed for the past few years, has not encouraged the growth of Merino Wools in the States East of the Rocky Mountains; nor has it protected the manufacturers of fine goods as was expected. At the meeting the fallacy of the tariff was discussed, and remarks were made showing the thriving condition of Canadian manufacturers under the free trade system on raw materials; but little, however, was accomplished beyond the appointment of a committee to report the best method for the classification of Foreign Wools under the different heads of the present tariff. In closing we would say in regard to the future prospects of Wool—that we look for little or no change in the status of the trade before New Years, either in demand or range of values. We quote: Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia—Choice Selected Saxony Fleece, 25@28 cents; Saxony Fleece, 53@56c; Three-quarter and Full-blood Merino, 51@53c; Half-blood Fleece, 52@56c; Quarter-blood Fleece, 49@52; Common Fleece, 45@47c; Combing Fleece, 60@63.

Wool.

BOSTON, October 7.—There was no improvement or change in wool in the past week; if anything, a firmer and more confident feeling was noticeable among holders. Desirable lots could be purchased without paying full current rates. The entire sales of the week were upwards of 1,500,000 lbs. Fine fleeces attracted more attention, Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces, No 2 to XXX, 50@57½c; Michigan fleeces 40@52c; western and Ohio fleeces 47@56c; unwashed combing and delaine fleeces 57@62½c; washed combing and delaine fleeces 47@49c; unwashed and unmerchantable fleeces 30@40c; super and X pulled 34@56c; scoured 55@85c.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, November 7.—There is an improved feeling in the market, and Southern buyers are operating more freely in domestic and foreign goods. Cotton goods are quiet, except heavy brown sheetings, which are in good demand. Side band prints are active. Masonville bleached shirtings are reduced to 12½c. Richmond fancy prints are now 8½c, but chocolates, &c., are unchanged. Wool flannels are in steady demand.

Live Stock.

CHICAGO, November 7.—Cattle: receipts 1,400 head; market quiet, but steady at yesterday's range of prices; shipments 3,000. Hogs: receipts 16,000; market fairly active, but lower; $5,25@6,25 for common to choice; shipments 11,000. Sheep: receipts 300; market active to the extent of offerings; $2,50@4,50; shipments 300.

GEORGE H. ROHE, Sergeant, Signal Service, U. S. A.

The weather continues cloudy and warm, with indications favorable for rain, but it has been threatening so much recently that people place but little reliance in it any longer. There is little hope of water now until after there has [illegible] snow.

—Sunday's Cincinnati Commercial [illegible] following, of interest to steam[boatmen] in this vicinity:—Captain Wm. [illegible] through the city on Friday en route to Pittsburgh. Captain Hazlett commanded the side-wheel Vermont in 1848, and afterward built the stern-wheel Alida for Wabash river navigation, and next the side-wheel steamers Amazon, Hannibal and Izetta for the Missouri river trade, and likewise the Majestic, which was burned in the Mississippi, near Island No. 8, when a number of lives and a large amount of Government greenbacks were lost. He afterward built the Welcome for the Missouri river, and the Rubicon, the pioneer steamer in the St. Louis and Vicksburg trade. Captain Hazlett is fifty-six years old, and not engaged in active business pursuits at present. The Rapides, to be sold at New Orleans next Thursday, was built at Cincinnati, by Captain John Haeberle, deceased, and has the machinery of the Des Arc. The New Orleans commanders and owners were in session yesterday. They have appointed Mann W. Satterwhite their agent at Louisville, in addition to B. C. Levi. Mr. Lewis Glenn has returned from St. Louis. At a meeting of the Directors of the National Dock Company, in St. Louis, on Friday, Mr. Lewis Glenn was re-elected President, Wm. Thomas Secretary and Treasurer, and Henry Adkins Superintendent. Captain John A. Scudder, President of the Carondelet Marine Railway and Dry-dock Company, and Mr. Lewis Glenn, President of the Sectional Dock Company, have agreed to advance the price of dockage of steamers from $75 and $125 a boat to 75c per ton, Custom-house measurement. General Andy Hickenlooper, in behalf of the Cincinnati Southern Railway, has been engaged, for two days past, with the Secretary of War, in Washington, D. C., examining the question of the location of the proposed bridge at Cincinnati. The bridge, as finally determined upon, will be located at the foot of Horne street. It will be 43¼ feet above high water mark of 1832, and 105¾ feet above low water. The draw pier will be located next to the Kentucky shore instead of the Ohio, as at first proposed. There will be 160 feet in the clear on each side of the pivot of the draw. The second span from the Kentucky shore will be the channel span. This will be 500 feet in the clear. Next north of this, toward the Ohio shore, are two spans of 280 feet each in the clear. The style of the superstructure is not yet decided upon. The Trustees will advertise immediately for proposals.

—The St. Louis Democrat is disposed to be personal, as will be seen by the following, referring to some parties well known in river circles here. Messrs. Coulson, Evans and Dallas have had an excellent season in the upper Missouri, the profits realized by each steamer of their fleet being in strange contrast with the meagre results attending boating on the Mississippi, Illinois, Ohio, &c. Captain Sanford Coulson is the chief of the well managed association of mountain steamboats. A contemporary gives a short biography of him thus: He is about thirty-six years of age, was born in Westmoreland county, Pa., and then learned the trade of blacksmith. Subsequently he became assistant engineer on one of Davidson's boats. He was afterwards a licensed engineer on the Missouri. He became commander of the Far West, and has continued ever since to succeed in business. As to Captain W. S. Evans, we learn that he was born near Hagerstown, Md., tried the carpenter's trade, the charge of a bar on a Monongahela river steamer, and afterwards commanded several steamers in the Ohio, New Orleans and St. Louis trade. He wears a cluster diamond pin and lugs a big gold watch chain. John B. Dallas is abuot 30, was born near Pittsburgh, and worked his way from the hard life of a poor boy. His chandlery firm in Pittsburgh, is Evans, Dallas & Gilmore.

—The Cincinnati Gazette of Saturday says:—Our Washington special, this morning, will greatly interest all who have any business connection with the Ohio River. The great Southern Railroad Bridge has been located by the War Department at the foot of Horne street. Steamboatmen and coal men will be surprised at some of the changes that have been made in the plans of the bridge, from those originally decided upon by the Bridge Engineers, and submitted to parties interested. It may not yet be too late for remonstrance, but action of that kind must be prompt.

—Friday's Memphis Avalanche says:—Captain John A. Wood, the Pittsburgh and New Orleans coal dealer, reports a fair stock of coal on hand at the Southern supply depots. On the first of the present month, New Orleans had a coal stock on hand of 151 boats or barges, or upward of 3,000,000 bushels, of which 500,000 belonged to gas companies and was not on the market. The consumption last month was 560,000 bushels. The supply at New Orleans and elsewhere along the river is enough to last until after January. Prices here continue uniform, and are 50 to 60 cents per box to steamers, and 75 cents per 100 pounds to city trade.

—We also clip the following from the same paper: The James Gilmore, Captain John Gilmore, left on Wednesday with two barges for the Ohio. They were loaded for Pittsburgh with five hundred and fifteen tons Pilot Knob ore and two hundred tons pig iron....... Mr. Shoemaker is waiting patiently for the Ohio to rise. He will see to the shipment of 100,000 tons of Iron Mountain ore as soon as practicable.

—A Memphis paper of Thursday says:—The Yaeger passed here going up night before last, with seven hundred tons. Her captain stopped off, and goes through by rail. The cargo of the boat in detail was 3,100 sacks of salt, 1,541 boxes sugar and 200 tons sundries. The Paragon, which passed down night before last, will get several thousand sacks of cotton seed between White River and Natchez.

—The Dubuque Herald says such a dull and unprofitable season as the present one has never before been known on the river. Freights were never as light, grain is held for better prices, flour is a drug in any market, and the result is that steamboat stock is the most undesirable a person can own.

—Captain David Hughes—Old Liberality—has recently built, at Nashville, a church, and presented it to the Methodist Episcopal Church South. This church is called Woodbine, in complimentry remembrance, we suppose, of the late James Fisk, Jr.

—Captain James H. Pepper, late of the Thompson Dean, has purchased an interest in the large passenger steamer Robert Mitchell, and will command this fine craft this season.

—Capt. J. C. Power, of the Maysville packet Wildwood, was married last Tuesday to Miss Maria J. Barkley, of Clermont county, Ohio.

—The steamer Bossier was to have been sold at Marshal's sale at New Orleans last Monday, and the Flirt goes the same way a week from next Monday.

—Capt. Geo. D. Moore has taken command of the Kate P. Kountz.

HOME NEWS.

Festival at St. Peters.

The ladies of St. Peters Episcopal church, corner of Grant and Diamond, streets, are making preparations for a grand Lunch and Supper, which comes off on Thursday next, in the Sunday School room of the church, to assist in liquidating a debt contracted by them in refitting and beautifying the interior of the church. The price of tickets has been placed at seventy-five cents, which will entitle the holder to either a lunch from twelve to two o'clock, or supper from six to ten o'clock P. M. Those who attend will doubtless have an enjoyable time, besides contribute to a laudable object.

Fruit and Flower Charity.

The Committee on the Fruit and Flower Charity for October report cash contributions, Mrs. Slagle $1. Contributions of fruit, flowers and vegetables from Mr. Errett, Mrs. McElroy, Mr. Keating, Miss Beeler, George W. Hailman, A. E. Reel, Mrs. George Black, Messrs. Murdoch, Mrs. A. P. Dravo, Miss McKee, Mrs. M. Gormly, Miss Harding and Miss Gormly.

The committee distributed during the month at Passavant's, Homepathic, Mercy and Twelfth Ward Hospitals, Little Sisters of the Poor, Home for the Friendless, Working Womans' Home and Orphan Asylum; four hundred and ninety-five pounds of grapes, four barrels of apples, one and a half bushels of plums, one bushel of tomatoes, one peck of pears, eight bushels of sweet potatoes, four bushels of beans, five dozen of beets, five bushels of onions, four gallons of apple butter, six bushels of turnips, four cans of jam, two cans of tomatoes, sixty-five bouquets, crackers; magazines and papers.

MISS GORMLY, }
MISS HARDING, } Committee.

The association will provide the usual Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner to the inmates of the Hospitals. Miss Verner and Miss Butler have been appointed for this purpose. With this exception, the work of the "Flower Charity" is discontinued until next season.

AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

The eminent tragedian, Lawrence Barrett, whose genius and careful study have won him a place among the first tragedians of the age, will begin an engagement this evening. Almost the entire press of this country have been singularly unanimous in its expressions of opinion on this actor. From all classes of critics he has probably won more enthusiastic praises than have ever been bestowed upon a tragedian. Even actors who may be said to be chary of their eulogies upon brethren of their craft, have not been lack in extolling his remarkable gifts. Mr. Barrett has chosen for his opening bill Bulwer's great play of "Richelieu," he personating the crafty old Cardinal Richelieu, in which he is acknowledged by competent critics, to be unrivaled. We predict that Mr. Barrett will be greeted with a crowded house, as no more popular actor than he visits Pittsburgh.

SCOOPED AT LAST.

Arrest of David Auday, Who Jumped Bail and Committed Larceny.

About two o'clock on Saturday morning officer Cotton, of the Union Depot police, arrested David Auday, a man for whom the police have been looking for some time past. Several months ago Auday was arrested for shooting his brother-in-law, but on giving $1,000 bail for his appearance at Court he was released. Before the time of the trial he jumped his bail and left the city, taking with him, it is alleged, $4,000 which belonged to his mother. She made an information charging him with larceny, but he had placed himself beyond the reach of the officers. Returning to the city with the object, it is said, of eloping with a woman, he fell into the hands of officer Cotton. When unexpectedly taken into custody he was arrayed in gorgeous style, and regardless of cost. He had a handsome gold watch, a fine amethyst ring, an elegant revolver, and had $130 in his possession, $90 of which were concealed in his boot leg. He will have a hearing before the Acting Mayor to-morrow, and although he will be held on the charge of felonious shooting, for which a true bill has been found against him, it is likely that the charge of larceny preferred against him by his mother will be withdrawn, inasmuch as he has promised, if the valuables found on his person are returned to him, that he will return $2,000 of the money he is alleged to have stolen.

A STRANGE DOSE.

A Crop of Live Lizards in a Woman's Stomach.

The Reading Eagle tells this story: On Wednesday Mrs. Mitchell vomited the third live black lizard from her stomach. She is the wife of Mr. John Mitchell, who resides in Cumru township, and is employed as a machinist in the Philadelphia and Reading railroad company's shops, and yesterday morning her husband brought the reptile along to this city, when he came to work, and presented it in a bottle to Dr. Dundore, who is preserving it alive. It is four inches in length, and is dark on the back and spotted, very similar to a trout, on the stomach.

Last spring, when returning home from this city in a carriage, she vomited something alive, whilst she was leaning over the side of the vehicle, but did not stop to examine it. About two weeks ago she felt a choking sensation, and threw up into a basin at home a live lizard, about four inches in length, and on Wednesday another one. About an hour thereafter she felt a choking sensation again in her throat, which had led her to believe that there are more lizards in her stomach.

Mrs. Mitchell is about 33 years of age, weighs over 200 pounds, and is in good health, excepting that occasionally she is afflicted with weak spells and a choking sensation, but these are of short duration. One evening last summer a year ago she drank water from the spout of a pump, and remarked to her husband at the time that she believed she had drank something alive with the water.

Mrs. Mitchell intends taking some drug to destroy the reptiles in her stomach.

AN EXPERT SHOP LIFTER.

Arrest of a Woman with the Stolen Goods in Her Possession—She was Finely Arrayed and in Funds.

A woman giving her name as Mrs. Mary Harris, was arrested on Saturday afternoon for shop-lifting. She entered the dry goods store of Joseph Caldwell & Co., on Federal street, Allegheny, and watching her opportunity, stole several pieces of very fine goods. A clerk missed them, and rushing to the door he saw the woman and followed her to a house on Thirty-sixth street, a few doors below Penn avenue. He secured the assistance of Officer Otterson, and the two were about to enter the house when Mrs. Harris came out. She was at once arrested and taken to the Mayor's office where the clerk instituted a suit for larceny against her. In her possession was found a cloth jacket and dolman, both valued at $60 and twenty yards of Japanese silk worth $10. This last piece of goods was wrapped up in a paper bearing the name of H. J. Lynch, the Market street dry goods merchant. Mr. Lynch was sent for and identified the silk as having been stolen from him a few days ago. He also entered suit against the woman. She was turned over to one of the women connected with City Hall, with instructions to search her, but nothing was discovered except a garment, made like a sack, concealed under the skirt, and which is used as a receptacle for stolen goods. She is in the Central Station house yet but it is expected that some one will appear to-day and furnish the requisite amount of bail. When the Acting Mayor announced on Saturday that she would have to give $1,000 bail for Court, she produced and offered as collateral security a bank book showing that she had $1,500 on deposit in the Masonic bank of this city. Mrs. Harris says she lives on the outskirts of the city. She is rather reticent and by no means profuse in her information. She was elegantly dressed, in clothing of the very best kind, wove genuine lace, an elegant lady's gold chain and fine jewelry. The detectives consider her an expert and dangerous shop lifter.

OBITUARY.

Flora L. Omohundro.

Last week Mr. Sidney Omohundro of this city, was called to his former home in Cincinnati, upon a sad mission—to attend the funeral of his youngest sister, who, after a long illness, had fallen a victim to that dreaded malady, Typhoid fever. The Cincinnati Gazette, in speaking of the funeral obsequies, says: "The obsequies of this excellent young lady, endeared to a large circle of friends by her peculiar sweetness of disposition, occurred yesterday morning at the residence of her brother, L. J. Omohundro, Esq., No. 377 Baymiller street. Long before the announced hour of the funeral—10 o'clock A. M.—the mourning friends began to assemble to pay the last sad tribute of respect and affection to her who only a few weeks since had been one of the merriest of the Cincinnatians at Griffith's Point, Lake Chatauqua, whither she had gone with a sick sister, who now survives her. Death does its work swiftly, and frequently, as in this case, unexpectedly. The flowers which were gathered amid so much delight will remain unpressed, and the ferns will remain unarranged. Other flowers, pulled for another purpose, performed their mournful office yesterday. After an appropriate sermon by the Rev. J. G. Adams, the remains were borne from the large and weeping group by the pall bearers. The interment was made in Spring Grove Cemetery, preceded by brief and touching services. The deceased was acquainted in Pittsburgh. Society, and all who knew her, will join with us in tendering sincerest sympathy to the bereaved friends.

Rev. Wm. Owens.

It is with feelings of sadness that we record this morning the death of Rev. Wm. Owens which occured at his residence on First avenue yesterday morning about one o'clock. The deceased was in the 76th year of his age at the time of his death, and has been a minister in the Welsh Baptist denomination for about forty years, and was regarded as one of the best men in the sect. He was the founder of the Chatham Street Church and was its pastor during his entire sojourn in this city. He was the father of Reese Owens, Esq., the pork packer, and Wm. Owens, Esq., a member of the bar.

THE RETURNS.

The Figures from Tuesday's Work.

The Democratic Majority in the County over 2,500—Who the Fortunate Candidates Are—A Summary of Results.

The reading of the returns for Tuesday's elections was finished in the Court Saturday afternoon about one o'clock, and after a short recess, the Clerks commenced the task of figuring up. This work was continued until evening and then an adjournment was taken until Monday. They managed to get through a few districts, but will have the largest bulk of their work to do to-day.

Following are the tables complete with a summary of results. Those marked with an asterisk are official.

Alarm of Fire in Allegheny.

Yesterday morning, shortly before eight o'clock, an alarm of fire was sounded in Allegheny from box 3, occasioned by the discovery of smoke issuing from a house on Market street between the weatherboarding and plastering. It was found that the smoke escaped from the chimney into this space, and consequently there was no need of the fire department.

HEAVY FALL.

A Railroad Official Seriously Injured.

Capt. Jno. Rogers, last car and freight Agent on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, met with a serious accident at Foster's station, on Saturday morninig. It appears the Captain was standing on the platform of a passenger car waiting for the train to move, when his feet slipped from under him and he fell heavily on the track, and was so injured as not to be able to help himself. He was put in the baggage car, suffering great pain and brought to the city, and having received medical attention was taken to his home on Rebecca street, Allegheny. We learn that his internal injuries are of a serious character. We trust the worthy Captain may be soon restored to health and usefulness.

THE IRON TRADE.

Conference on Saturday, Between Iron Manufacturers and Puddlers, Regarding a Reduction of Wages—Another Meeting To-day.

On Saturday afternoon a conference of iron manufacturers and puddlers was held for the purpose of agreeing, if possible, upon a new scale of prices for "boiling," &c. The difference which has existed for some time past between employers and employes has threatened to eventuate in a strike, and in order to avert any difficulty of that character and also to settle upon a new basis of wages the consultation was held. It is claimed that if the market price of iron continues decreasing, a general suspension of operations will inevitably follow, unless the price paid for puddling, &c., is reduced. The manufacturers hold that the present price of iron, about two and a half cents, does not justify them in paying six dollars per ton for puddling, and that the present sliding scale, on a basis of three cents, card rates, must be changed to meet the depressed condition of the market. It is further claimed that this depression is the result of the high price paid for puddling, six dollars per ton. The conference was held in the rooms of the Iron Association on Fourth avenue, and a committee consisting of prominent manufacturers was met by a Boilers Committee. Owing to the fact that the session was a secret one, our reporter was unable to glean particulars, but learned that the questions involved were discussed in a friendly way on both sides, without, however, arriving at anything definite. The conference finally adjourned, after the appointment of committees on behalf of both the parties interested, which will meet again to-day to further discuss the subject, and, if possible, decide upon such wages as will be fair to all concerned.

The following schedule, the manufacturers claim, exhibits the prices paid at Pittsburgh and other places:

New England, boil'g or puddl'g	$3 75@4 00
Scranton, " "	3 50
Troy, 6 heats, " "	3 75
Troy, 5 heats, " "	4 50
Harrisburg, boiling	4 50
Danville, "	4 05
Phœnixville, "	4 28
Reading, "	4 50
Bethlehem, "	4 50
Cambria, "	4 50
Pittsburgh, "	6 00

The puddlers allege the above table to be an unfair one, claiming that it gives prices for which no work is done and which are causing strikes East and West. The following table they say exhibits the correct prices at which their services are being remunerated:

Leechburg, Johnstown and Apollo	$6 00 ⅌ ton
Second District, comprising Wheeling Steubenville, Ironton, Irondale, Columbus, Zanesville and Cleveland	6 25 ⅌ ton
Third District, comprising Covington, Newport, Portsmouth, Cincinnati, Louisville and vicinity, Indianapolis, Belleville, St. Louis and Terre Haute	6 50 ⅌ ton
Fourth District, comprising Chicago, Joliet, Milwaukee, Wyandotte and Springfield	6 50 ⅌ ton
Buffalo, New York, Niagara Falls forge	5 75 ⅌ ton
Newark	6 25 ⅌ ton
Fifth District, Troy, New York (six heats per ton)	4 80 ⅌ ton
Boiling iron (five heats)	5 25 ⅌ ton
Patterson, New Jersey	6 75 ⅌ ton
Oxford furnace	5 09 ⅌ ton
Trenton, New Jersey	5 55 ⅌ ton
Phœnixville, Pa	5 00 ⅌ ton
Allentown Glen Mill	5 50 ⅌ ton
Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey are ruled by Philadelphia prices (helper paid 50 cents out of office)	5 50 ⅌ ton

THE COURTS.

SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

United State Supreme Court
(Before Judge McCandless.)

On motion of Hon. David Reed, U. S. Attorney, E. G. Platt, Esq., of Philadelphia, was sworn and admitted a member of the bar of this Court.

Frederick M. Coombs, of Titusville, filed a petition for the adjudication of himself in bankruptcy, and the matter was referred to Register Rogers, of Franklin.

John Levi, Luzerne county, bankrupt. On petition of the assignee, an order was made for the sale of certain real estate, on certain terms.

John Kenmuir, Allegheny City, bankrupt. The assignee's report of the sale of certain real estate approved and an order made directing the assignee to make deeds to Mrs. Catharine Gould and Hugh S. Fleming, purchaser of lots on Rebecca street.

Staib & Co., Pittsburgh, bankrupt. On petition of J. B. Sneathen & Co., an order was made for a meeting of the creditors, at the office of Samuel Harper, Register, on the 23d inst, for the purpose of considering propositions for a settlement.

W. A. Miller et al. vs. B. F. Baer. On petition of the solicitor for debtors, a rule was granted on the petitioning creditors to show cause why the proceedings in this case should not be dismissed within ten days, for the reason that the requisite number of creditors have not joined in the petition of adjudication.

James Humphrey et al. vs. Andrew Jackson. On motion of the solicitor for petitioning creditors, the said debtor was adjudged bankrupt, and the matter referred to Register Shafer. John Hall, U. S. Marshal, was appointed provisional assignee, with instructions to insure certain property of the said bankrupt, and to place a watchman in charge of the same.

District Court.
(Before Judges Kirkpatrick and White.)

In the equity case of J. K, Lanahan vs. Patrick Scanlon, of which mention is made elsewhere, the Court dissolved the partnership, and appointed John O'Keefe master and receiver.

McCullough & Smith vs. L. Rodgers. Judgment against garnishee for $750.

On motion of J. F. Slagle, Esq., A. F. Alexander, Fsq., of Mifflin county, was duly admitted to practice in this Court.
